NYC-Westchester Region

Want to attend an open self-advocacy group meeting?

Join one today! Many self-advocacy groups are open to new members in Westchester, Queens, The Bronx, Brooklyn, Staten Island, Manhattan, and Westchester County.

Want help starting a self-advocacy group at your site?

We can help! Self-Advocate leaders working for SANYS have years of experience supporting self-advocacy groups in a variety of programs and settings.

Want to take a course and learn about self-advocacy?

We offer an interactive, multi-session course called SANYS U. Each module covers an important topic related to self-advocacy, including the history of disability rights, leadership, community involvement, advocacy, and groups.

Come to our NYC-Westchester Regional Leadership Meetings in 2021!

1st Tuesday of every month
12:00 – 2:00 pm

Come and learn more about Self-Advocacy by:

- Connecting with SANYS board members and other self-advocates across the region
- Learning how to advocate for current disability issues in NYC and Westchester Co.
- Hearing about what other self-advocacy groups are doing
